

CO-OPERATION PROJECT
BETWEEN UNITARIAN COLLEGE MANCHESTER AND THE PROTESTANT
THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE CLUJ-NAPOCA

I am happy to confirm that we expect the co-operation between Unitarian College, Manchester and the Protestant Theological Institute in Cluj-Napoca to continue.

1. In the past we have offered scholarships for staff and graduates from Protestant Theological Institute in Cluj-Napoca to study in Manchester and Oxford, and we expect this to continue.
2. We would be pleased to explore further areas of co-operation, such as research projects and shared publications.
3. Our higher degrees, MA and research degrees, are offered through the Partnership for Theological Education, of which we are a member, and are validated by Manchester University. From September we shall be offering, again through the partnership, the Foundation degree in Arts validated through Chester University.
4. Unitarian College is a member of the Partnership for Theological Education, an affiliated institution of the University of Manchester, and also a member of the Southern North West Training Partnership, which is affiliated to Chester and Liverpool Hope Universities.

All good wishes,

Rev Dr Ann Peart
Principal

Unitarian College

Luther King House

Brighton Grove

Rusholme

Manchester M14 5JP

tel. 0161 249 2531

PRINCIPAL: Rev. Ann Peart MA PhD

The Unitarian College

Luther King House, Brighton Grove, Rusholme, Manchester, M14 5JP
Tel: 0161 249 2501 Fax 0161 248 9201
Email: ann.peart@lkh.co.uk liz.shaw@lkh.co.uk
Registered Charity No 526654
4 June 2008

Prof. Univ Rev Dr Rezi Elek
Rector of the Protestant Theological Institute
Cluj Napoca
Romania

CO-OPERATION BETWEEN UNITARIAN COLLEGE MANCHESTER AND THE UNITARIAN SECTION OF THE PROTESTANT THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE CLUJ-NAPOCA

I am happy to confirm that we expect the co-operation between Unitarian College, Manchester and the Unitarian section of the Protestant Theological Institute in Cluj-Napoca to continue.

1. In the past we have offered scholarships for staff and graduates from Protestant Theological Institute in Cluj-Napoca to study in Manchester and Oxford, and we expect this to continue.
2. We would be pleased to explore further areas of co-operation, such as research projects and shared publications.
3. Our higher degrees, MA and research degrees, are offered through the Partnership for Theological Education, of which we are a member, and are validated by Manchester University. From September we shall be offering, again through the partnership, the Foundation degree in Arts validated through Chester University.
4. Unitarian College is a member of the Partnership for Theological Education, an affiliated institution of the University of Manchester, and also a member of the Southern North West Training Partnership, which is affiliated to Chester and Liverpool Hope Universities.

Yours sincerely

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ann S Peart". The signature is written in a cursive style.

Rev Dr Ann Peart
Principal

Memorandum of Academic Co-Operation between

Unitarian College Manchester

and

The Protestant Theological Institute in Cluj-Napoca

We, the undersigned, Rev. Dr. Ann Peart, Principal of Unitarian College Manchester and Rev. Dr. Elek Rezi, Rector of the Protestant Theological Institute in Cluj-Napoca, hereby confirm our expectation for the ongoing co-operation between Unitarian College Manchester and the Protestant Theological Institute in Cluj-Napoca to continue.

1. In the past Unitarian College Manchester has offered scholarships for staff and graduates from Protestant Theological Institute in Cluj-Napoca to study in Manchester and Oxford, and we expect this to continue.
2. The higher degrees of Unitarian College Manchester, namely MA (Master of Arts), MPhil (Master of Philosophy) and PhD (Doctor of Philosophy), are offered through the Partnership for Theological Education, of which Unitarian College Manchester is a member, and are validated by Manchester University. Since September 2008 Unitarian College Manchester offers, again through the partnership, the Foundation degree in the Arts validated through Chester University.
3. Unitarian College is a member of the Partnership for Theological Education, an affiliated institution of the University of Manchester, and also a member of the Southern North West Training Partnership, which is affiliated to Chester and Liverpool Hope Universities.
4. The ongoing collaboration between Unitarian College Manchester and Protestant Theological Institute in Cluj-Napoca has already been concretised at the level of doctoral training, one graduate of the Protestant Theological Institute having been admitted as a PhD researcher to Manchester University through Unitarian College Manchester.
5. Both institutions would be pleased to explore further areas of co-operation, including research projects and shared publications.

Manchester/Cluj-Napoca, 5 June 2009.

Unitarian College Manchester

Protestant Theological Institute Cluj-Napoca

Ann S Peart
Rev. Dr. Ann Peart
Principal

UNITARIAN COLLEGE
LUTHER KING HOUSE,
BRIGHTON GROVE,
RUSHOLME,
MANCHESTER. M14 5JP

